HUDSON GENERATES IDEAS SUMMIT

Sydney – Wednesday, 2 July 2008 – Hudson Managed Services has invited 30 of their most influential clients to discuss the major trends in Recruitment Process Outsourcing (RPO) at the inaugural Managed Services Ideas Summit to be held in the Hudson offices on Thursday 3 July.

The day-long Ideas Summit, will host representatives from companies such as Johnson & Johnson, Sensis, Medibank, Perpetual, Bank of Queensland, sanofi-aventis and Merck Sharp and Dohme.

Discussion at the Ideas Summit will cover such topics as workforce planning, employment branding, current and emerging candidate attraction and selection strategies, as well as employee on-boarding & engagement.

Kimberley Hubble, Executive General Manager of Hudson's Managed Service & Talent Management businesses said, "The ideas summit presents a rare chance for senior HR leaders to share ideas and develop their thinking on major HR issues in conjunction with their peers."

"We expect the day will be full of open and frank discussion and as a result provide participants with a number of different perspectives on the issues that are most pressing on their HR agendas."

"The opportunity to take a step back and spend a day sharing ideas with other HR leaders is something our clients have told us would be valuable. We hope by bringing the group together and sharing our experience on what has worked and what hasn't worked in particular situations we will enable participants to implement fresh ideas within their own business," Ms Hubble said.

Hudson Managed Services expects to make the Ideas Summit an annual event moving forward. For more information on the Hudson Managed Services Ideas Summit please contact Kimberley Hubble, on 02 8233 2447.
